against humanity, resulting in genocide.

If we can reasonably determine that the above risk exists, we will immediately suspend our transactions and engagement with the supplier.

We will not tolerate any acts of direct or indirect support by non-governmental armed groups (including, but not limited to, non-governmental armed groups, public or private security forces or their subsidiary bodies):

- Illegal control of mine sites or illegal control of transport routes, mineral trading sites and upstream suppliers of supply chains
- 2) Illegal extortion of money, minerals, etc., at the point of entry, along the route of transport or at the point of trading minerals
- 3) Illegal extortion of middlemen, export enterprises, or international traders.

If we determine that the upstream supplier violates any of the above, we shall immediately suspend the trading and contact with that supplier.

We promise not to ask for any bribes, resist all kinds of temptations, and promise not to bribe the government in order to falsely report the taxes and fees and concession fees that should be paid to the government for mining, trading, transportation, export and other activities. We undertake not to offer, promise, give or demand bribes or kickbacks in any way to individuals, including government officials, clients, and suppliers or any other organization, and we undertake to pay all taxes and fees due to the Government concerned on time.

Require our employees, suppliers and business partners to comply with the above policy and take necessary measures to ensure the implementation of the above policy.

If we find that upstream suppliers have such a risk in the silver supply chain, according to the company's silver supply chain risk mitigation management measures,
